GURUKULA KULAPATI

Jagadguru Shankaracharya Swami Swaroopananda Saraswati of Jyotirmath & Dwaraka peetha

Shri Vidya Math shishya (disciple or student) study on the banks of the holy River Ganges at Kedar Ghat, Varanasi, India.

Shri Vidya Math is one of India's last few gurukuls (a residential monastery following the education system from ancient India) which teaches the Vedas (a large body of religious texts) through the authentic practices of the ancient world.

It follows the guru-shishya tradition with 400 shishya (disciples or students) who have voluntarily come from different parts of India to become Veda scholars.

The gurukul aims to further the ancient Indian traditions of Vedic learning in a modern world.

Varanasi, or Benaras, (also known as Kashi) is one of the oldest living cities in the world. The city has been India's centre of learning and civilization for over 3,000 years.
